- A. Official Rodeo: The CHAMPIONSHIPS will be counted as an "Official Entry" rodeo unless contestant designates it as an "Unofficial Entry Rodeo" at time of competition confirmation or unless contestant has previously met the maximum number of allowable "Official Entry" rodeos.
- B. Prize Money to Count toward Standings: All prize money earned at the CHAMPIONSHIPS will count as Championship Points and will be applied to 2011 pro rodeo Standings, unless contestant designated the CHAMPIONSHIPS as an "Unofficial Entry Rodeo" at time of entry.
- C. No Circuit Points: Dollars won at the CHAMPIONSHIPS will not count toward circuit standings.
- D. No Competing in Other Rodeos or Rodeo Events During CHAMPIONSHIPS: Contestants may not compete at a rodeo or rodeo event other than the CHAMPIONSHIPS on the day of the first performance and the day of the second performance. However, those contestants who do not qualify for the Finals will not be required to participate in any function on or after the Finals round performance.
- E. Conflicts:

JUSTIN BOOTS CHAMPIONSHIPS - OMAHA

- a. If a contestant qualifies for Omaha and is placed in a position at a conflicting rodeo on Sept 22 or 23 (which are the first and second go-rounds at Omaha) and does not find a first go-round trade by the trade deadline or that rodeo, she will automatically be drawn out of the conflicting rodeo. If the contestant is placed at a conflicting rodeo on Sept 24, she will NOT be automatically drawn out of the conflicting rodeo. If she qualifies for the finals at Omaha, she can either be moved at the conflicting rodeo to the next available positions or be drawn out (if there are no available positions) as long as she notifies PROCOM by the turn out deadline for that rodeo. If only one go-round at the conflicting rodeo is conflicted, the contestant will be allowed to turn-out of the one go-round and compete in one go-round.
- F. Releases: Valid releases will be accepted. Should it be necessary to release, contestants are to follow procedures outlined in Part 10.7 of the WPRA Rulebook. Failure to follow those procedures will result in fines pursuant to Section 4B of these Ground Rules. A contestant using the release procedure shall also be subject to the ineligibility periods as set forth in the WPRA Rule Book.
- G. Determination of Event Champion/Event Winners: The Event Champion will be that person who wins the Finals on Saturday, September 24, 2011. In case of a tie the Finals, the Event Champion will be determined based on the fastest time in the long go round. If still tied, the Event Champion will be determined based on the rankings coming into the CHAMPIONSHIPS. Second and subsequent places in each event will be determined in the same manner.
- H. Victory Lap: The event winner for each performance must be prepared to take a victory lap following her event. In addition, the event winner for each performance are to be prepared to be introduced either in the arena or on the stage, as requested by Production Manager, immediately following the last bull rider. Failure to take the victory lap or to be available for introduction following the performance will result in a $100 fine for each violation.
- I. All Contestants Introduced Each Performance
Contestants will be introduced during opening ceremonies or during closing ceremonies immediately following the introduction of the winners of each performance. Failure to be available for this contestant introduction will subject contestant to a $100 fine for each offense.
- J. Autograph Sessions: All CHAMPIONSHIPS contestants are required to participate in an autograph sessions following each performance, in which they compete, unless excused due to injury. Failure to participate in the autograph session shall result in an initial $250 fine, that fine doubling progressively for each reported offense thereafter. Any contestant who does not qualify for the finals will be excused from the autograph session after that performance only.
- K. Patch Sponsorships: See Exhibit A and WPRA Rule # 19.1.1.
- L. Back Numbers: Each contestant will be furnished with a CHAMPIONSHIPS back number, which must be worn and displayed in its entirety at all times when in the Competition Arena. If a contestant has an existing patch sponsorship involving the cantle/yoke of the shirt, then that contestant may wear the CHAMPIONSHIPS back number immediately below the existing cantle/yoke patch. If a contestant elects to wear a protective vest or jacket, then that contestant must wear the CHAMPIONSHIPS back number in the same location on the vest or jacket. Failure to wear the

JUSTIN BOOTS CHAMPIONSHIPS - OMAHA

CHAMPIONSHIPS back number in its entirety as outlined above will result in a fine of $1000 for the first offense, $2000 for the second offense, $4000 for the third offense, and disqualification from the CHAMPIONSHIPS for the fourth and subsequent offense. A contestant may be fined without warning and may be subject to immediate disqualification if the offense takes place during the finals. If a contestant distributes her back number to another individual for use or admission into the event, a fine of $250 per incident will be levied.

- M. Honest Effort: All contestants competing in a performance must give an honest effort. If it is determined by a unanimous vote of all Pro Officials assigned to officiate that event that a contestant did not give an honest effort, she will be (i) disqualified from the go round in which the violation occurred and any remaining go rounds, (ii) disqualified from contention for the average payoff in the event for which that contestant did not give an honest effort and (iii) assessed a fine in the amount of $500.
1. Barrel Race: In the barrel race, a contestant who fails to ride, using appropriate equipment, her horse through the electric eyes (unless the Pro Officials rule the contestant's horse refuses beyond the contestant's control) shall automatically be deemed not to have given an honest effort. Once the contestant has ridden her horse through the electric eyes, it is the sole responsibility of the Prof Officials to determine whether a contestant gives an honest effort. In making this determination, Pro Officials should consider whether the contestant has made a good faith effort to successfully complete the event and record a time.
- N. Foul Language: Any contestant using foul language in the arena, either audibly or by obviously mouth the words, will be fined in accordance with WPRA Rule 9.3.17 and will be assessed a minimum initial fine of $1,000, that fine doubling progressively for each offense thereafter.
