NOTE: The PPOBR Board reserves the right to change the order of events 48 hours before the entire run of the competition or for any given performance. Proper notice of a change of events will be given to the contestants along with an explanation of the reason for the change of event order.

8. OTHER

8.1 Every contestant winning a check agrees to be available for a check presentation, media interview, and a minimum one-hour autograph signing session immediately following his/her event.

8.2 Each contestant must complete a W-9 and give it to the Secretary prior to his/her first competition. PPOBR will not authorize payment of prize money to any contestant who does not have a valid W9 on file with PPOBR.

8.3 Stalls are available at the Norris-Penrose Event Center and will be assigned to contestants at check in at the NPEC Stall office. The stall fee is $15.

8.4 Contestants must abide by PPOBR rules and regulations for entry and exit with animals. Individuals who violate animal entry policies will be subject to immediate ejection from the premises.

8.5 Contestants are prohibited from riding, leading, tying or stalling horses anywhere on the designated landscaped or lawn areas. The first violation of this rule will result in a stern warning from PPOBR. Failure to comply immediately with PPOBR or subsequent violations of this rule will result in breach of the Contestant Agreement (the offending contestant will be disqualified from any further PPOBR competition in 2019 or 2020).

8.6 No contestants may be in the arena during events except for the contestant(s) actively involved in a ride or run.

8.7 The Barrel Racing shall be governed by the Rules of the Women's Professional Rodeo Association.

8.8 Per PPOBR's standards of humane treatment of animals, the use of hot shots, electrical prods and/or sharp instruments, excluding spurs, are strictly forbidden in the chute areas and within the confines of the arena.

8.9 There will be two (2) qualified judges during all performances of the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo with the exception of the Qualifier at which only one judge will be used.

9. GENERAL

9.1 Contestants agree to abide by all posted premises rules and regulations of PPOBR.

9.2 Contestants must wear back numbers which are visible at all times upon entrance to, and when in, the arena, whether competing or not.

9.3 No family members (including children), guests, escorts, etc., will be allowed in chute or arena areas. The only individuals who may be in those areas in addition to contestants shall be credentialed contestant helpers.

9.4 PPOBR will admit contestants who are entered in the competition to all facilities at no charge. Regardless of membership in various professional rodeo associations and rodeo sanctioning bodies, members who are not PPOBR contestants will not be given free admission, nor may they enter any area restricted only to contestants without proper PPOBR credentials. In addition, each invited contestant will receive one (1) companion pass which will be eligible to receive a ticketed seat during the performance in which the contestant competes, if available.

9.5 Contestants must enter facilities via the south entrance off of 8th Street.

9.6 Contestants should be aware that PPOBR is a family event. Contestants will perform in a manner that is not offensive to any social or ethnic groups and that is suitable for a family audience. Contestants will be mindful that the arena floor is covered by video cameras and microphones, with eight large center screens and monitors projecting throughout the clubs and public areas of Norris-Penrose Event Center.

9.7 PPOBR contestants agree to attend a mandatory meeting in the Contestant Hospitality Room (or other designated place) at 5:30 pm on weekdays, and 11:30 am on Saturday, prior to their qualifying performance. PPOBR judges will attend these meetings to answer contestant questions regarding the Rules of Competition. If a contestant is not able to attend the meeting, they must advise the Rodeo Secretary or PPOBR.

9.8 PPOBR is represented in the arena by the Rodeo Manager and the Rodeo Producer. Their decisions on non-scoring, production, performance and procedural issues are final.

9.9 Contestants must refrain from speaking to the judges while in the arena unless a judge initiates the conversation. Contestants must refrain from attempting to persuade or to intimidate the judges inside or outside of the arena – to include appeals for a re-run. Failure to comply with this rule will result in a breach of the Contestant Agreement, disqualifying the offending contestant from any further competition in PPOBR events in 2019 and 2020.

9.10 Contestants and traveling companions/assistants (whether entered at PPOBR or not) must comply with all PPOBR animal welfare rules and regulations as they pertain to their personal animals, the animals of PPOBR's stock contractors or any other animals with which they may come in contact. PPOBR's animal welfare, animal care, and animal injury rules and regulations will be posted at multiple locations in the contestant areas in the Norris-Penrose Event Center. Failure to comply with these rules and regulations will result in breach of the Contestant Contract and may result in criminal prosecution or citation if local and/or state animal welfare laws are violated.

9.11 PPOBR has strict policies prohibiting the use of animal prods of any type (to include, but not limited to, sharp instruments, hotshots, other electric shocking devices, joy buzzers or vibrators) within the confines of Norris-Penrose Event Center prior to, during, or after any PPOBR performance. Designated representatives of PPOBR's general stock contractor/rodeo producer may carry hotshots for use in the alleys, pens and dock loading areas to facilitate movement of animals if there appears to be imminent danger to any humans or animals. Failure to adhere to these policies will result in breach of the Contestant Contract.

10. Appearances, Press and Media

10.1 Contestants must be photographed by PPOBR photographer and videographer at the time of entry check-in. These photos will be used for big-screen presentation, television, rodeo contestant wall and website. Contestants agree to allow their photograph to be used.

10.2 Contestants agree to be available to PPOBR for media interviews during the days/evenings that they are participating in the PPOBR QUALIFYING PERFORMANCES and the PPOBR CHAMPIONSHIP ROUND.

10.3 As stipulated in the Contestant Agreement, contestants agree to participate in promotional activities at Norris-Penrose Event Center (upon request of PPOBR with sufficient notice) which may include receptions, breakfasts, dinners and cordial "meet and greet" appearances in sponsor/client suites. PPOBR will be judicial in these requests and will limit the amount of time and number of requests made upon the contestants.

10.4 Contestants agree to make "best case" efforts to be available for public appearances that may be outside of Norris-Penrose Event Center. PPOBR agrees to cover out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Contestant in conjunction with appearances outside of Norris-Penrose Event Center plus an honorarium of $100 per appearance if scheduled by PPOBR. If the appearance is not conducted on a day/evening in which the Contestant is competing (at PPOBR), an additional honorarium will be negotiated.

10.5 Autograph Sessions: Any contestant winning a check agrees to sign autographs in the "CINCH Fan Zone" for a minimum of one hour immediately following the performance in which the check was won.
